

Fox & Hounds

Funtington

The Fox & Hounds pub & restaurant offers fine dining in relaxed, elegant surroundings in the charming village of Funtington.

Between 1942 and 1944, Funtington Airfield served the Allied cause and was a fighter dispersal station for RAF Tangmere, hosting Canadian and Norwegian Squadrons in the D-Day invasion against France. The Fox and Hounds was first listed as a public house in 1878 and during the Second World War, the Common Room, our Georgian function room was used to hold dances for the Canadian Air Force.

The Common Room at The Fox & Hounds

A Function Room for Every Possible Occasion - No Hire Charge!

Perfect for parties, family lunches, fine private dining, corporate meetings, product launches, club meetings, small weddings and funeral teas.

An ideal space catering for 10-35 people for private dining or an informal buffet service and bar for larger parties of up to 50 people.
